

LE-GARDIEN

TECHNICAL SHEET

Pattern Glass

Pattern Glass is decorative glass manufactured with a textured or embossed surface that creates distinctive visual effects while diffusing light and enhancing privacy. Produced by passing molten glass through engraved rollers, pattern glass combines aesthetic appeal with functionality, making it suitable for both residential and commercial architectural application.

The Pattern Glass comes in wide range of designs and colours that caters to the interior requirements of architects and designers today.

